Rodney and Holly Robinson Peete, February 29th, 2008, Indianapolis Museum of Art

Former NFL starting quarterback Rodney Peete is currently one of the hosts the Fox Sports Net sports talk show The Best Damn Sports Show Period alongside John Salley, Chris Rose and Rob Dibble. The standout athlete was the first player ever from USC to win the Johnny Unitas Award as the nation's best senior quarterback. A 16-year NFL veteran, Peete served as quarterback for six teams, most recently as a starter for the Panthers before retiring at the end of the 2004 season

Holly Robinson Peete is a well-known actress author and mother of four children. As an actress, Robinson is probably best known for her television roles on the crime series 21 Jump Street from 1987 to 1991, Hangin' with Mr. Cooper from 1992-1997, and in the 1998-2002 comedy series For Your Love. Robinson was most recently starred on the UPN comedy. In 2006, she won the Quills Award in Sports for her Book Get Your Own Damn Beer, I'm Watching the Game!: A Woman's Guide to Loving Pro Football.

The Peetes were married on June 10, 1995. Together they have four children: daughter Ryan & son RJ (twins); son Robinson and son Roman. One of their twins, RJ has autism.

Jim Ellis, April 24, 2008, Martin University Gathertorium

Nationally renowned swim coach Jim Ellis' story is testimony to the power of dreams and their ability to inspire and transform human life. His story is the subject of the film, Pride, starring Terrence Howard. Pride tells the story of how Ellis built a successful swimming program in one of Philly's most impoverished neighborhoods. The film shows this uplifting and soulful story of Ellis' journey that pulled together a group of troubled inner-city kids, made them into a dedicated team, and taught them how to overcome adversity through hard work and determination.
